

Support Group for Parents of Neurodivergent Kids

CONNECTED STRIDES, INC.
GROWTH THROUGH MEANINGFUL CONNECTIONS

As clinicians specializing in supporting neuro-divergent kids and their families, we recognize that the time after a recent Autism and/or ADHD diagnosis is crucial.

We offer a supportive space to process your feelings and connect with others going through similar experiences.

- Rely on guidance from a therapist who understands the needs of neuro-divergent children
- Assistance in navigating the supports and services they may need across home and school settings

Every other
Wednesday
9AM - 10AM
Beginning
Sept. 13th

Held in person at the Connected Strides office in Encino. Joining remotely is available, if needed.

$80 per session
